

Nottingham Garden Club

Switlik Club House

June 18, 2025

The meeting of The Nottingham Garden Club was called to order at 6 pm by President Jay Derrico, who began the meeting with the flag salute and Theresa Turner read a quote.

Jay announced that the pot-luck dinner is ready and the meeting will continue after dinner.

Patrish Shalestik reported that there are 39 members and 4 guests in attendance. Membership cards were handed out and you can get 10% off at Timothy's.

Treasurer, Elaine Garrison, announced that the balance is $6,518 after a recent $1,536 deposit. And $6,068 after paying bills.

Jay announced that a thank you note was received from the Watershed group for us supporting a child to go to camp. Let Jay know if you can attend a Watershed meeting on 7/15 from 10am-11am.

A copy of the last minutes are here to see. Discussed the tax exempt number and Joe will speak to the board.

Jay is speaking with Kristine Geck, from Crockett, about donating to the environmental project. They plan to get a green house.

Cathy Weber shared that a service project will be planned in January. Whoever is interested we'll be making bagged lunches for TASK.

Charlene Miller took 11 political signs down that were by the Blue Star Memorial. She called the Mayor but did not receive a response.

Jay announced that everyone needs to sign up for a committee if they haven't already. June 6, 2026 is the garden tour. Need sponsors for the booklet. Still need homes so tell Jay if you find one to suggest.

Suzanne Albanese shared an update for the herb garden which is doing well

Jeanette Bergeron announced a talk at the Hamilton Public Library on disaster planning.

John Varga spoke about working on the NGC website. A goal is to encourage new members and provide gardening information for all. Asked for access code or log in information. Trish has done webly for another garden club. If anyone can help see John.

Kathy Hoffman thanked the refreshments committee.

Our next meeting will be July 16th, 2025 at the Switlik Club House.

Respectfully Submitted, Cathy Weber, Co-Secretary
